

Guide Your Application Toward the most Favorable Art Unit

LexisNexis Pre-Filing Classification Reports

Get the best patent in the shortest time with Pre-Filing Classification Reports

LexisNexis PathWays™ helps you positively influence the likelihood and the time it takes to get your application granted. Changes in how claims are written can completely change the path of a patent application. The Pre-Filing Classification Reports provide an even greater level of accuracy down to the art unit level.

Pre-Filing Classification Reports enable you to:

Understand how changes to the invention's description and claims could change where the application is assigned at the USPTO

Get the best patent in the shortest amount of time with exclusive insight on which art units have more favorable examiner allowance profiles

Take patent drafting to a higher level by targeting or avoiding specific art units with customized drafting guidance

Have a phone call and speak directly to a classification expert

Leverage insight from classification experts at the USPTO
